

My comments are intended to encourage FCC to authorize supplemental audio channel capacity for stations converting to digital broadcasting. Wichita Radio Reading Service is subcarrier of KMWU 89FM and offers an important service everyday to thousands of print-impaired Kansans. As a board member for WRRS, I familiar with how it helps people who no longer can see. KMWU is dedicated to serving the community with this service and others. Please allow it to continue to do so.